FOREIGN NEWS ON APPLES

THE HAMBURG APPLE MARKET

More interest was manifested on the part of buyers at the Hamburg apple auction, Thursday, January 22, according to a cable from Fred A. Motz, Fruit Specialist in Europe for the Foreign Service of the Department of Agriculture. Barrels were reported as particularly active on the auction and that more could have been handled. All boxed offerings met with improved inquiry with the exception of Ortleys and Winter Bananas. Supplies of the former were plentiful. Prices on the whole at the auction were advanced over those ruling last week. About 19,000 barrels, some of which were overripe and scalded, were offered at the auction. This accounts for the wide range of prices paid for barreled stock.
